

CUT ACREAGE OR GET LOW PRICES FOR VEGETABLES

U. S. Department of Agriculture So Advises In Bulletin on Crops

NOT LIKELY TO BE HEADED IN GLADES

But Warning Gives Reason For Caution In Making Expenditures

Reduce acreage, avoid over-production that is the advice of the United States Department of Agriculture in a bulletin, "The Outlook For Certain Crops in 1930 and Truck Crops in 1930," and made applicable to potatoes, beans, cabbages, onions and other crops. No reference is made to peppers and eggplants.

Irrespective of what the Republican politicians promise as to tariff legislation or the Farm Board, the tendency of the Department of Agriculture is to point out that there is no imminent prospect of improved agricultural conditions except through reduced acreage and greater economies in production. In a report on the Everglades made by a committee of heads of departments connected with the production of food crops, it was advised in bringing new lands into use because of surplus production and unremunerative prices of farm commodities.

There isn't much prospect that the Department of Agriculture, warning and advice will be heeded by farmers in the Lake Okeechobee region; the strong probability is that acreage of truck crops will be increased in all of the South Florida districts.

South Florida had unusually good weather this season and competitive districts have had unusually bad weather, and the result is that conditions in the Everglades are just as good now as they have been for some time.

WHY COMMITTEE WANTS TO HOLD HEARING IN FLORIDA

Why did Chairman Reid of the flood control committee of the House of Representatives introduce a bill dealing with the Everglades when no one has asked him to do so?

That is the big mystery or was a mystery, for it may be that an explanation has been asked. Every person in Florida who has authority to represent the views of the people expected the bill would be handled in the committee on rivers and harbors. But somehow or other Chairman Reid got into the picture. "How come?" everybody down here asked.

"Members of Reid's committee want an excuse to visit Florida this winter and get away from Washington's bad weather and enjoy Florida's fine climate." That statement is ventured to explain the introduction of the Reid bill and the plan to hold a committee hearing in Florida. Well, if that's the case we don't blame them; let them come on.

SUGAR COMPANY BOYCOTTS TOLLS

Uses Barge and Roads On Its Own Property To Keep Off of Canals

Revenue of Canals highway is considerably reduced by non-use by the sugar companies. The Southern Sugar Company, which is the largest sugar company in the state, is the one that is doing all the canals can but he says he cannot overcome the indifference of his associates who are not interested in the canals.

According to the story told in the Everglades, which, however, is not a creditable story, County Engineer Jake Smith submitted to the State Road Department a list of projects for which aid was wanted and the first of them was for the east coast canal for so much money that those things cannot be had if Canals highway is also provided for.

This story is absurd because E. R. Graham of Dade county, who is the one that is doing all the canals can but he says he cannot overcome the indifference of his associates who are not interested in the canals.

LEGISLATION FOR FLOOD CONTROL IS MADE MORE LIKELY

Okeechobee, Caloosahatchee, Proposals Go To Rivers and Harbors Committee

EFFORT CENTRALIZED BY ALL AGENCIES

Plan To Hold Hearing In Florida, Idea Abandoned; Skipper There

After a rather stormy initial session Wednesday of the House flood control subcommittee meeting in Washington, that committee decided to abandon consideration of Chairman Reid's bill and relinquish jurisdiction to the rivers and harbors committee.

The rivers and harbors committee has already made plans to include the Okeechobee project in the next report bill to be reported this session.

The action taken by the flood control committee has been taken in part by Senator A. W. Young, executive secretary of Everglades drainage district and Okeechobee flood control district, by Glenn B. Skipper, Republican national committee chairman, and E. F. Freeland of Miami, treasurer of the Florida flood control association.

A report of the meeting of the flood control committee in Washington Wednesday is carried in the Associated Press dispatches. The report is made by Gladstone Williams, the special Washington correspondent of the Miami Herald, who is in the city.

"Action taken by the flood control committee, which came after a number of Florida witnesses had been heard, removes the possibility of any conflict between the two committees, a development that had been feared by some observers."

NOT ALL BEANS IN CAR LOTS, SOME POTATOES AND PEPPERS

Additional evidence of the diversity of truck crops in the upper Everglades and Lake Okeechobee region is furnished by an analysis of car-load shipments from stations of the Florida East Coast railroad in the week ending Wednesday, February 5, and overcomes the popular impression that beans are the only vegetables grown in considerable quantity.

The figures given below do not include the shipments from Moore Haven and Clewiston, which are Atlantic Coast Line stations.

100 Cars of Vegetables Go From Upper Glades In 7-Day Period

RETURNS TO GROWERS $100,000 EACH WEEK

Equals Pay Roll of Factory With 3,300 Employees At $30 a Week

As an even 100 cars of vegetables were shipped in the week ending February 5 from the stations of the Florida East Coast railroad in the upper Everglades section of Palm Beach county. Seventy-six went out in solid cars and 24 by flat cars.

Fifty-nine of the 70 solid cars were green beans, the remainder 17 cars of other crops, including cabbage, potatoes and mixed vegetables.

These figures may be considered as a record, for the average number of cars shipped from the state in the week ending February 5 amounted to 124. It is shown by the figures that more than half of the state's green bean production was from Palm Beach county's Everglades.

The pupils of Pahokee high school are beginning practice this week for a new play. "The Hoodoo." This is to be presented at the auditorium on Feb. 21.

Have you ever been hoodooed? The members of the evading party at the Leo-Barly wedding certainly found out. The hoodoo was hoodooed; even Aunt Paradise, the old negro cook, was bewitched and in turn tried her powers of witchcraft on others in the house. And just so long as "The Hoodoo" plays in the house, trouble comes to the people who possess it. Many amusing situations arise from this spell which is cast over the different ones attending the wedding; but to really know how night-dancing and amusing things can become, you'll have to see the play.

The play is under the management as "The Adventures of Grancha," which was presented in the fall. Miss Pinsky is directing the play and Mrs. Lutz the choruses.

SOCIAL NEWS

Mrs. Myrtle Armstrong, Miss Gladys McChire and Miss Ruth Simmons were visitors in Indian Sunday.

W. R. H. Dabson was present at the Pahokee high school midweek Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Lutz, Mrs. Lucille Williams, Mrs. W. G. Smith and Mrs. W. H. Dabson were appointed to see that committee.

WHAT PEOPLE SAY

Major W. J. Lagimodiere of Pahokee: "Yes, I think you are right. It would be better if all the communities around the lake agreed on a proposition and presented a solid front. The more important thing is the more reason for thinking it over and acting cautiously until we know we are right. We ought to welcome suggestions and offers of assistance, but when a man comes in from the outside without invitation and asks us to do something it is a good plan to refer the matter to a committee for a meeting with committees from other towns. The thing which has made us the lake states is that we have had no one to talk about at first."

C. M. Todd, trucker and "small order man" of Pahokee: "It is usual to make seedlings in low places where rain comes, and they do come right at the time the plants are being made. The plants are downed out. If seedlings are where on high ground they are liable to get pretty dry but there is where they ought to be made even if water has to be carried to them. This territory would have more money if it had more eggplants and peppers grown from plants made in seed beds prepared in August."

H. G. Gates, a former mayor of Moore Haven and once in charge of the police of Clarence M. Busch and associates, was a visitor to Moore Haven recently. He now lives in Tampa.

COMMUNITY GOSSIP

NEWS FROM AROUND THE BIG LAKE

SOUTH BAY

Feb. 4, 1930.
Mrs. W. E. Crocker and daughter Ruby accompanied by Mrs. W. C. Allen motored to Belle Glade Sunday afternoon.

The Ladies' Aid of the Community church is planning on putting on a program consisting of a play and several musical numbers in the near future. The cast of the play includes Mrs. E. E. Forbes, Mrs. Pearl Forbes, Mrs. H. C. Williams, Mrs. Mary Farnum, Mrs. R. G. Fisher, Mrs. V. C. Denton, Mrs. W. Templeton and Mrs. J. M. Templeton. The cast met at the home of Mrs. E. E. Forbes on Friday afternoon for the purpose of receiving their parts and making arrangements for regular practice which will begin this week.

Charles R. Barfield of Puhuke made a business trip to South Bay on Sunday.

James Mather, William Jeffries and W. C. Allen went up their evenings to building a fighting pen at the American Legion Hall in Belle Glade.

Herrill Hardy spent Sunday visiting his little friend Clifford Allen.

T. H. Monk, manager of the International Harvesting Company branch located at Miami, was in South Bay one night last week while en route to St. Petersburg to make a new tractor.

G. J. Barstow and son, Glenn, Jr., made a business trip to Miami and West Palm Beach the latter part of last week.

The colored people are enjoying regular preaching services at their school house in South Bay. The Methodist and Baptist preachers in Belle Glade alternate their services and each serve both places, making two services each Sunday at both places.

Little Bill Allen celebrated his eighth birthday Friday, Jan. 21, by giving a party to twenty-seven of his little friends. The afternoon was spent very enjoyably in playing games. At an appropriate hour refreshments in the shape of ice cream cake and punch were served.

The young boys received many gifts in honor of the occasion.

The Parent-Teachers Association will hold their next meeting in the evening instead of the afternoon in order that as many of the fathers as possible will be able to avail themselves of the opportunity to get acquainted with the work. The meeting will be held on Monday, Feb. 10, at the school house. A special program is being prepared in honor of "Father's Night" and all parents who have children in school are especially invited to attend this meeting.

W. C. Allen and family accompanied by Mrs. Frank Franz and daughters motored to Puhuke Thursday evening in order to attend the picture show.

The Baptist E. V. P. U. had an excellent crowd out last Sunday evening at their regular meeting. All the young people are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Mrs. J. M. Templeton and Miss Esther Plank were out making calls on friends Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Clarence Lee entertained friends from Clewiston on Sunday afternoon.

Louise and Betty Rawley had their house going on Friday night.

Cap'n J. E. Forbes is shipping his potatoes from Ritta Island in ear lots and receiving an excellent price for them.

Harry Mitchell, W. C. Allen, George Albert and other Americans Legion boys enjoyed a chicken dinner at the Glades Cafe last Friday evening.

Jack Herrill, brother of Mrs. Edna Walker, was a South Bay visitor Monday evening.

Roger Gist and wife accompanied by their two sons, Roger, Jr. and Vance, left for their home in Amarillo, Texas, last Monday. The Gist family have been visiting Mr. Gist's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Templeton, and his sister, Mrs. V. C. Denton and family, for the past few weeks and probably would have remained longer had not Mr. Gist been called home by pressing business matters.

The Epworth League of the Community church met at the home of Mrs. W. C. Allen on Friday night as the auditorium of the school house was in use and not available for the League. After the regular devotional meeting those present were divided into two groups.

Mrs. J. E. Hoch took charge of about fifteen of the young members and they all journeyed to the home of Mrs. J. Rawley for games and refreshments.

The Epworth League of the Community church will meet at the school house on Friday night next.

The devotional service the young people will enjoy their monthly group contributions a cafeteria lunch will be served.

Frank Franz who is farming quite an acreage in the vicinity of South Bay says that his trucking investment is giving excellent returns.

C. M. Lee who is about 70 years of age and has been in the trucking business for many years, is now in the trucking business.

Mr. S. H. Hoge, brother-in-law of Frank Lee, is here visiting for a short time. Mr. Hoge is connected with J. N. Hoge, a hardware and lumber manufacturer of Ward.

Mr. Marshall of Fort Lauderdale was the speaker at a meeting of interested citizens and farmers on Friday evening at the school house. The subject under consideration was the possibilities of a pre-existing plant and cooperative marketing bureau for growers in which the school house is being used to hold the meeting.

Mrs. P. E. Goodroad, teacher of the kindergarten class at the Community Sunday school was unable to be present last Sunday and Mrs. J. M. Templeton kindly substituted in her absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wolf, sons Arthur, Jack and Carl and daughter Catherine of Krenner Island came to South Bay by boat Sunday for a visit at the G. J. Barstow home.

C. E. Sykes, new manager of the E. E. store who has moved in Moore avenue, states that business is steadily improving.

Mrs. Murray Gay and infant son have returned to their home in South Bay.

John Hawkins states that he planted tomato seed three weeks ago from which he now has plants six inches high and ready to set in the field. Mr. Hawkins took special pains with his seed bed, making it well and giving it plenty of moisture.

W. E. Crocker, manager of the meat department in the B & B store, has gone to Arcadia on business.

The orchestra and choir practice which was to be held on Tuesday evening was postponed until Wednesday evening at the W. H. Rawley home so that it would not conflict with the movies which were enjoyed at the school house Tuesday.

G. M. Chichester has had a material increase in the family this week as his dog, Queen, the mother of seventeen puppies.

Mr. Gardner is reported to be quite ill at his home.

Demand Denton reports that the demand for hamper goods is good and that he expects it to increase materially with the advance of the season.

Bridge has become the chief in-door amusement in South Bay and has been so popular is now relegated to the back ground.

Handcraft, manager of the V. C. Denton filling station, says that business is holding up very well.

Mrs. E. E. Forbes has returned from a business trip to Miami. Mitchell is taking her place for a few days.

The Epworth League of the Community church will meet at the school house on Friday night next.

The devotional service the young people will enjoy their monthly group contributions a cafeteria lunch will be served.

OKEELANTA

Feb. 3, 1930.

For the time being up to March, the Norton family makes its home in the Big Cypress.

John J. Gilman, Jr., who has been staying with his grandparents for the last ten days, left Monday morning for his job on the dredge.

Florida, Capt. Earl Daniels, now removing his family from the Hillsboro canal.

The hotel (Covell's) had as guests during the forepart of the week two Okeelanta friends, Mr. Macks and daughter, who are spending the winter in Florida, expecting to pay Okeelanta another visit before returning north.

A week ago Thursday this community was treated to the sight of a low flying plane headed for Clewiston.

Two Miami fishermen indulged in their favorite sport the whole night of the 1st instant, on the Lauderdale canal bank.

A prospective renter for the Hock place found his way into the midst from Miami last Wednesday.

The Anjima family and V. W. Both made a trip to the Brown Company farm last Sunday afternoon.

John Newhouse, a former Okeelanta, has been the two oldest and most interested of the party.

Anjima and Both—over the fields, where hundreds of acacia trees, all kinds of vegetables, in all stages of growth, gave evidence of the fertility of the swampy land under wise management.

The ramble along these fields was a genuine treat to the Okeelanta, a wholesome encouragement to optimism in the future of the swampy portion of the Everglades.

One who has resided for 13 uninterupted years in a region where the swamp was more than level and who saw such land under clearing process from 200 to 600 bushels of potatoes an acre without fertilizer; from 500-600 bushels of dahlias; 100 bushels of corn, about 60 tons of sugar cane (1924), the language of Mr. Hyde, one of the Okeelanta, is somewhat disheartening, for in that report it is said "it had been done."

Under the supreme port decision on the gasoline tax law, the Secretary of Agriculture, is now conducting a two-weeks revival in the Moore Haven Baptist church.

Mrs. Wm. Surrency is now employed in the Kahn store, having transferred there from Donah's drug store.

J. B. Freymuth of Lakeland, division superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Company, visited Moore Haven to check up on the local office's service to the public.

Forty-eight members and friends of the B. V. P. U. went to the soil over on the old townsite with his tractor for a coming crop.

Around The Lake

So much land around Lakeport is now dry enough to farm that the county commissioners of Glades county are to have a dragline machine do some road work there.

Taxes due on real estate in Okeelanta county for 1929, 1930 and 1931 amount to $175,000, it is claimed by J. L. Barber, clerk of court. Fifty thousand dollars of the total is due the school board.

Water was shut off Sunday from Moore Haven's municipal plant as the big storage tank could be washed out by Okeelanta water, a supply of water for over Sunday by filter barrels, buckets and bath tubs.

A. J. Herman of Tampa, a salvage manufacturer, was at Okeelanta Monday to buy cattle. In recent months he has bought 1,000 head from the F. E. Pearce estate, paying over $25,000.

J. J. Pope, the Moore Haven insurance agent, has been into the Pearce estate. He has leased his bakery and restaurant to J. P. Brantley. Until now there has been an insurance business in Moore Haven.

A volunteer fire company has been organized at Moore Haven. Wm. H. Anderson, chief of the Fort Myers fire department, aided in the organization.

Moore Haven

From The Democrat, Jan. 31.

A "river tea" was given today by the Parent-Teachers Association for the benefit of the school library.

The Methodist missionary society netted $27.25 from an entertainment put on by R. F. Lafferty of Lakeland, who donated his services.

A examination of children not yet of school age was held February 6 by a physician and nurse of the State Board of Health.

Under the supreme port decision on the gasoline tax law, the Secretary of Agriculture, is now conducting a two-weeks revival in the Moore Haven Baptist church.

Mrs. Wm. Surrency is now employed in the Kahn store, having transferred there from Donah's drug store.
